1. A response has been filed on June 25, 2003
2. Claims being examined are still 1-5
3. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
4. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Konig et al (US 6060573) in view of Ishiguro et al (US 568890).

Please refer to earlier office action for this rejection.

5. Applicant's arguments filed June 25, 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

6. Applicant state page 3 that tetravalent titanium compound of Ishiguro is used for processing polymers at 220⁰c and hence it cannot be used for a composition with a ~~string~~^{stoving} temp of less than 100⁰ C ". This statement is not persuasive. Instant claims are ~~string~~^{stoving} devoid of any limitation based on specific ~~string~~^{stoving} or processing temperature. The temperature of 220⁰C is not the temperature at which the titanium compound is used. It is the temperature at which the polyurethane composition is melted, probably long after the polyurethane is prepared using the titanium compound as the catalyst. Furthermore Ishiguro in co. 6, lines 45-53, suggests that the catalyst be used at a preferred temperature rang of 90⁰C to 130⁰C.

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1711

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
